

THE ANTICHRIST IN THE TRIBULATION

There is a person of great power and stature who will emerge during these seven years. His name will not be the Antichrist, as given him in the Bible.

When this was written we did not know who he would be, but you will recognize him as he will declare himself to be God. He will persecute all religions and make them illegal.

Before revealing himself as God, there will be such chaos in the world that people will be desperate for someone to bring order. Even when this was written, we saw law and order falling to confusion, disorder, chaos, and much pain in the world. The stage was set. The Antichrist will promise to restore order and many will believe him.

He will require everyone to get the mark of the beast, and to worship him. Those living must get the mark, or they will not be able to trade, get a job, or purchase. After all these events happen, you will be getting close to the end of this age. Jesus will be coming soon, and He will send the evil ones to the fire pit.

Jesus will be the one to reign for 1,000 years, with a new heaven and earth to follow.

This is what we were told. Trust what God told us.
